EbayI have purchased several books at , and I have, Never Been unhappy with any Item bought. "Masterpieces of Costume Jewelry" is a great reference source. I research quite often and use a variety of books. This book, is a little different than the others, I use. It has a back pages with value guide, in list form. That saves me some time.I get great deals on books at . I would normally pay a higher price for a reference book, in new condition. Shipping is fair, the Pictures and Prices, help me Identify, and quickly adjust prices, this allows me to have, a very good transaction, when I sell. Thank You Much,God Bless You Yours Sharon19 of 20 people found the following review helpful. Good book for the moneyBy Ann M. PitmanThis book has some wonderful photographs, and lots of jewelry you won't see anywhere else. It covers many designers that are overlooked by many jewelry book authors. There is a lot of information in this book, making it as good for reading as it is for picture viewing.

This important reference takes an in-depth journey through the phenomenal ascent of costume jewelry through the 20th century. The costume jewelry designers are discussed individually and their work is displayed in hundreds of magnificent photographs of their masterpieces. Unsigned masterpieces are also included, proving that the makers of many top quality pieces are sometimes unknown. This volume continues the unfolding story of costume jewelry begun with Joanne Ball's very popular book Costume Jewelers, The Great Age of Design and both authors' The Art of Fashion Accessories.

About the Author With Masterpieces of Costume Jewelry, Joanne Dubbs Ball and Dorothy Hehl Torem have now completed their third book together. Both have an intense interest in the jewelry industry, in which Dorothy has been involved for many years as a designer of jewelry and related accessories. Their mutual interests revolve around many diverse areas, including fashion, fragrance bottles, and other feminine accoutrements. Both are avid collectors, and their combined knowledge has proven to be a valuable asset in their partnership endeavors. Individually, each is involved in related freelance projects, Joanne (in partnership with her husband Bob) as a monthly column contributor to Collector's Magazine, and Dorothy as a staff photographer and contributor for Lady's Gallery magazine. A native of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, Joanne Ball resides in the Farmington Valley area of Connecticut. Dorothy Torem lives in Rhode Island and New York City. Consequently, their almost daily communications have been a source of much delight and added revenue for their respective telephone companies.
