There's one for every occasion, as collectors and watch-lovers well know from their own selection. The time is everywhere these days - on our mobile, on illuminated road signs, on motorbike or car dashboards - but we still need to have it on our wrist. And manufacturers from Switzerland and elsewhere still produce watches that become works of art, wonders of technology, and purveyors of taste or pure luxuries. This book explores the subject in 256 compact pages, richly illustrated with pictures of the most recent and innovative designs. Inside, the reader will find the best watch for the weekend, for intimate evenings, to wear to the office, to give as a birthday present or to make the owner look like a film star.
