Theodore Menten : Victorian Fashion Paper Dolls from Harper's Bazar, 1867-1898 (Dover Victorian Paper Dolls) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Victorian Fashion Paper Dolls from Harper's Bazar, 1867-1898 (Dover Victorian Paper Dolls):

By Kay Hudson The paper dolls in this book actually span the period 1867-1898, unfortunately (I was actually looking for the 1870s!) If you are looking for paper dolls per se, these are very nice, with four dolls (Abigail, Beatrice, Caroline and Daphne) and their accompanying ensembles in full color and considerable detail. However, the clothes are not dated. You'll need some further references to follow the change of silhouette through the decades (try another Dover publication, Victorian Fashions and Costumes from Harper's Bazar 1867-1898 - the two books complement one another).0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. These are beautiful illustrations. Also, this is a light package to send to my daughter-in-law in London.

Create an authentic fashion parade of Victorian styles with four dolls and 28 gorgeous costumes, including walking suits, carriage dresses, evening and seasonal attire, a bridal gown, and accessories. All costumes are historically accurate adaptations of designs that appeared in Harper's Bazar, one of the 19th century's top fashion magazines.
